Award winning Westport is an architectural delight full of charm and charisma located on the banks of Clew Bay and shadowed by the majestic Croagh Patrick pilgrimage mountain.

Drenched in history, Westport has a rich cultural heritage dating back to the mid 1700's and the centre piece of that heritage can be seen at Westport House and Gardens, once home to the Pirate Queen, Grace O'Malley. Today, the beautifully authentic 'Big House' offers a wonderful collection of spectacular artefacts, artworks and treasures. Plenty of Family Fun can also be found at their Pirate Adventure Park with log flume rides, pirate ship swings, swan pedalo boats and tours of the real life dungeons.

Take the time to explore the Great Western Greenway, the 42kms off-road walking and cycling trail which stretches from Westport to Achill Island along an old railway line. Bicycles and toddler trailers can be rented and pick-ups scheduled along the way or catch a boat back to town where dinner can be caught and cooked along the route.
