WESTPORT

THINGS TO DO

THE POINT AT WESTPORT QUAY

The Point is a great place to catch some fresh air and enjoy a therapeutic sea swim with breathtaking views of Croagh Patrick.

THE WILD ATLANTIC SAUNA

Set in the heart of Clew Bay, The Wild Atlantic Sauna is a small locally run business located at Old Head beach, Louisburgh. They provide a unique experience where you can enjoy the hot sauna combined with the chilly waters of the Atlantic. You will also be able to enjoy the spectacular views of Croagh Patrick and Clew Bay.

MESCAN BREWERY

Love a cold one? Take a tour of Westport's very own microbrewery, Mescan. They will lead you through a selection of their range of beers, describing the flavour profiles and some of the history of each style. Light snacks are served, the tours are informal and fun and they encourage questions.

TRAD MUSIC

Westport is a hub for traditional Irish music, with many pubs hosting live music sessions. Cobbler's Bar offers live trad music on Thursdays and Sundays from 8:30pm.

CROAGH PATRICK

The famous pilgrimage mountain of Croagh Patrick, known locally as The Reek, lies some 10 km west of the town near the villages of Murrisk and Lecanvey. The holy mountain offers a striking backdrop to the town, and is associated with St. Patrick, who spent forty days fasting on the summit. The church on the summit, dating back to the early 20th century, can just be made out with the naked eye from Westport. The walk to the summit takes roughly 2 hours. Some people may require walking sticks which are available in the Community Café in the 'pay and display' carpark.

WESTPORT WALKING TOURS

Westport Tours is the number one walking tour in Ireland. You'll get to experience the culture of Westport and the beautiful heritage that comes with it. They'll introduce you to all the local gems, such as the best ice-cream, the best pints, the best pubs and the best restaurants.

WILD NEPHIN NATIONAL PARK

Located on the western seaboard in northwest Mayo, Wild Nephin National Park covers a vast 15,000 hectares of uninhabited and unspoilt wilderness, dominated by the Nephin Beg mountain range. To the west of the mountains is the Owenduff Bog, one of the last intact active blanket bog systems in Western Europe.

THINGS TO DO

MOORE HALL & BALLINTUBBER ABBEY

Explore some of the history of Mayo, with a trip to Moore Hall and Ballintubber Abbey. Moore Hall was built by George Moore between 1792 - 1796. George Moore (1727-1799) was a wine merchant who owned a fleet of ships and had made a vast fortune in Spain. Today Moore Hall is a wonderful and atmospheric spot to enjoy a walk and a picnic.

A ten-minute drive from there is Ballintubber Abbey. This magnificent building was built in 1216 by Cathal Crobhdearg O'Connor, King of Connacht (Cathal of the Wine Red Hand). A small church that once lay close to the present abbey was founded by St. Patrick in 441. Ballintubber Abbey is the only church in Ireland founded by an Irish king that is still in regular use.

HORSE RIDING

Westport is home to several equestrian centres that offer horse riding lessons and treks. Beach and countryside horse riding are popular in Westport, and there are many guided tours available for those who want to explore the countryside on horseback.

Centres include:
Carrowholly Stables, Drummindoo and Go Trekking.

CROAGH PATRICK SEAFOOD TOURS

Croagh Patrick Seafoods is a family oyster farm on the shores of magnificent Clew Bay near Westport, right on the Wild Atlantic Way and beside the Great Western Greenway. Owner Padraig Gannon personally leads a fascinating shore-based tour of the oyster beds followed by an oyster shucking demonstration and tutored tasting. The 90-minute tour gives an unparalleled insight into the world of oyster farming, from tiny seed to mature shellfish in these pristine waters. Visitors learn how the flavours here are unique as the growing oyster picks up the character and flavour of this stunningly beautiful bay. Padraig's stories bring to life the history of Clew Bay and the story of his own family and community.

MAYO DARK SKY PARK

Mayo is now home to Ireland's first International Dark Sky Park, showcasing some of the darkest, most pristine skies in the world. Nestled between the remote Nephin Mountain Range and the unspoiled Atlantic coastline, the Dark Sky Park extends across an area of 150km. Its borders encompass the lands of Wild Nephin National Park. There's so much you can discover by looking up at the night skies. On a clear night here in Mayo, you can see thousands of twinkling stars, along with other planets in our solar system, The Milky Way and even meteor showers all with the naked eye.
